Manage the candidate journey seamlessly with the JobHoller ATS

holler.global | searchability.com

Showcase your employer brand and manage the candidate experience all in one place

Our proprietary ATS is part of our award-winning technology product JobHoller, powered by our sister brand Holler.

JobHoller has been developed and built by Holler, with features implemented as a result of direct feedback from internal recruitment teams and HR representatives.

This easy to use software is perfect for teams who are looking to improve their candidate journey, collaborate with team members and showcase their employer brand.

CAREERS HUB

As part of the ATS you will have access to a mobile & Google jobs optimized careers hub. This includes:

- Company bio and media hub
- Unlimited job postings
- Talent pool functionality
- Live social integration
- Blog section
- Benefit highlights

JOB POSTINGS

Attract & manage candidates in one place

Through the careers hub you can post unlimited jobs, either publicly or privately, allowing you to assign candidates to specific vacancies and track their experience for every touchpoint within your candidate journey.

CANDIDATE JOURNEY

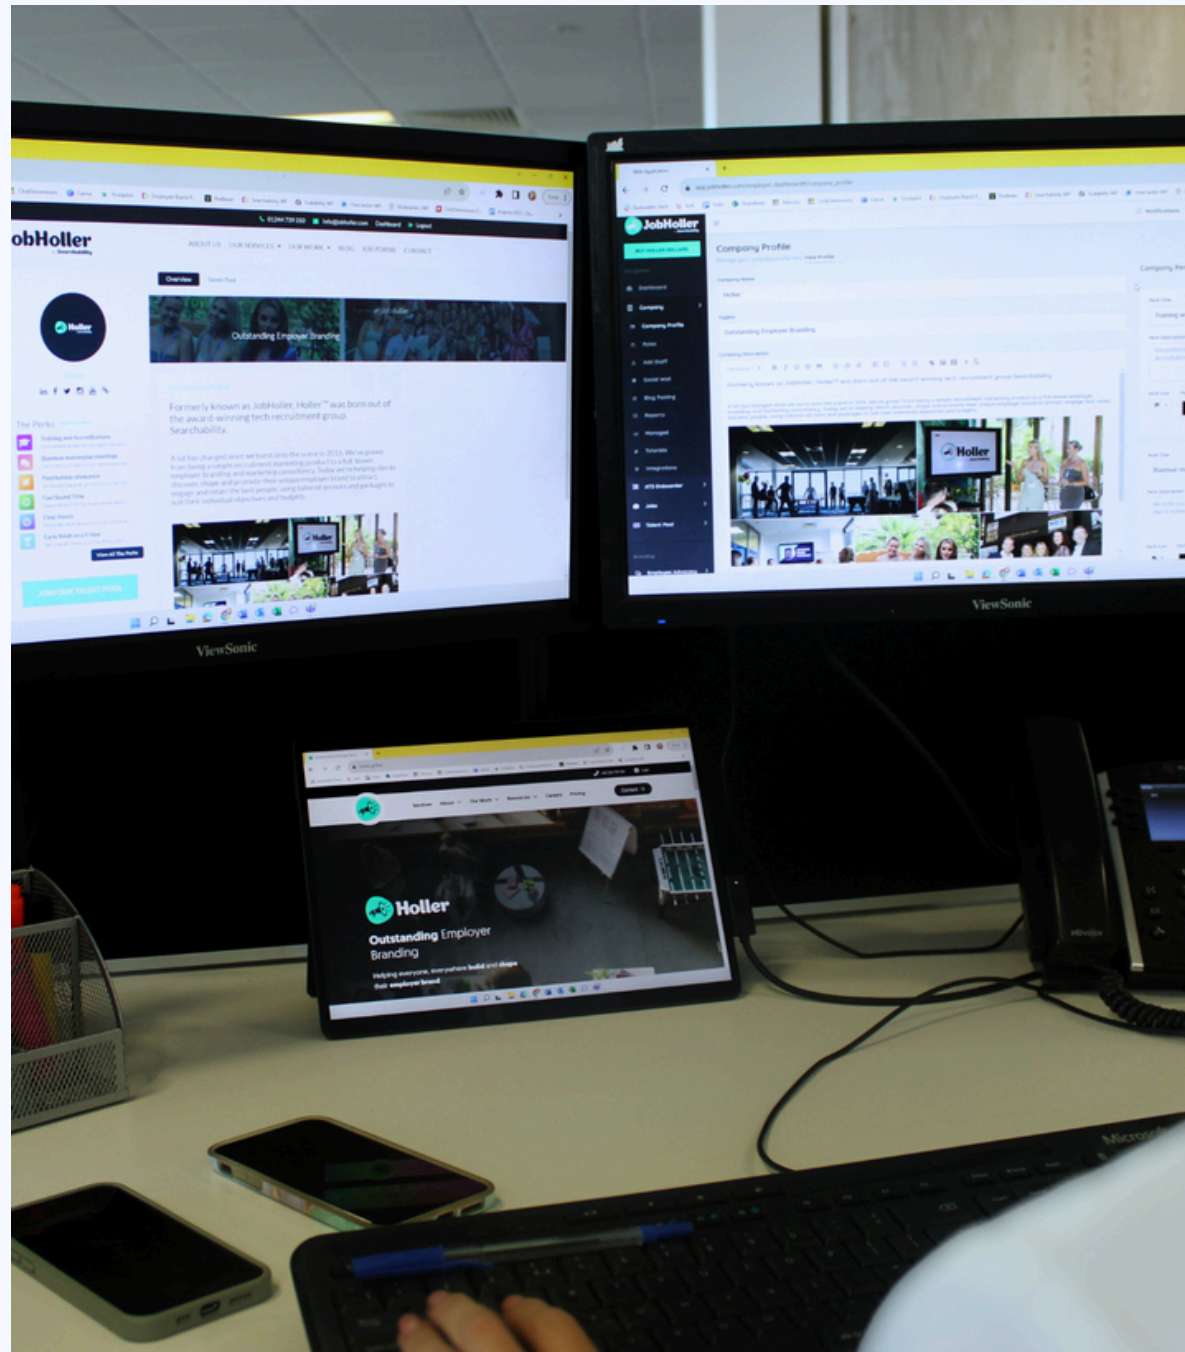

Personalize the journey for every role

In the ATS you can build multiple journeys that are personalized for your company & your job roles, including:

- Google / Outlook Calendar Integration
- Email automation updates
- Personalized automation tools
- Collaboration tools to improve time to hire

DATA TRACKING

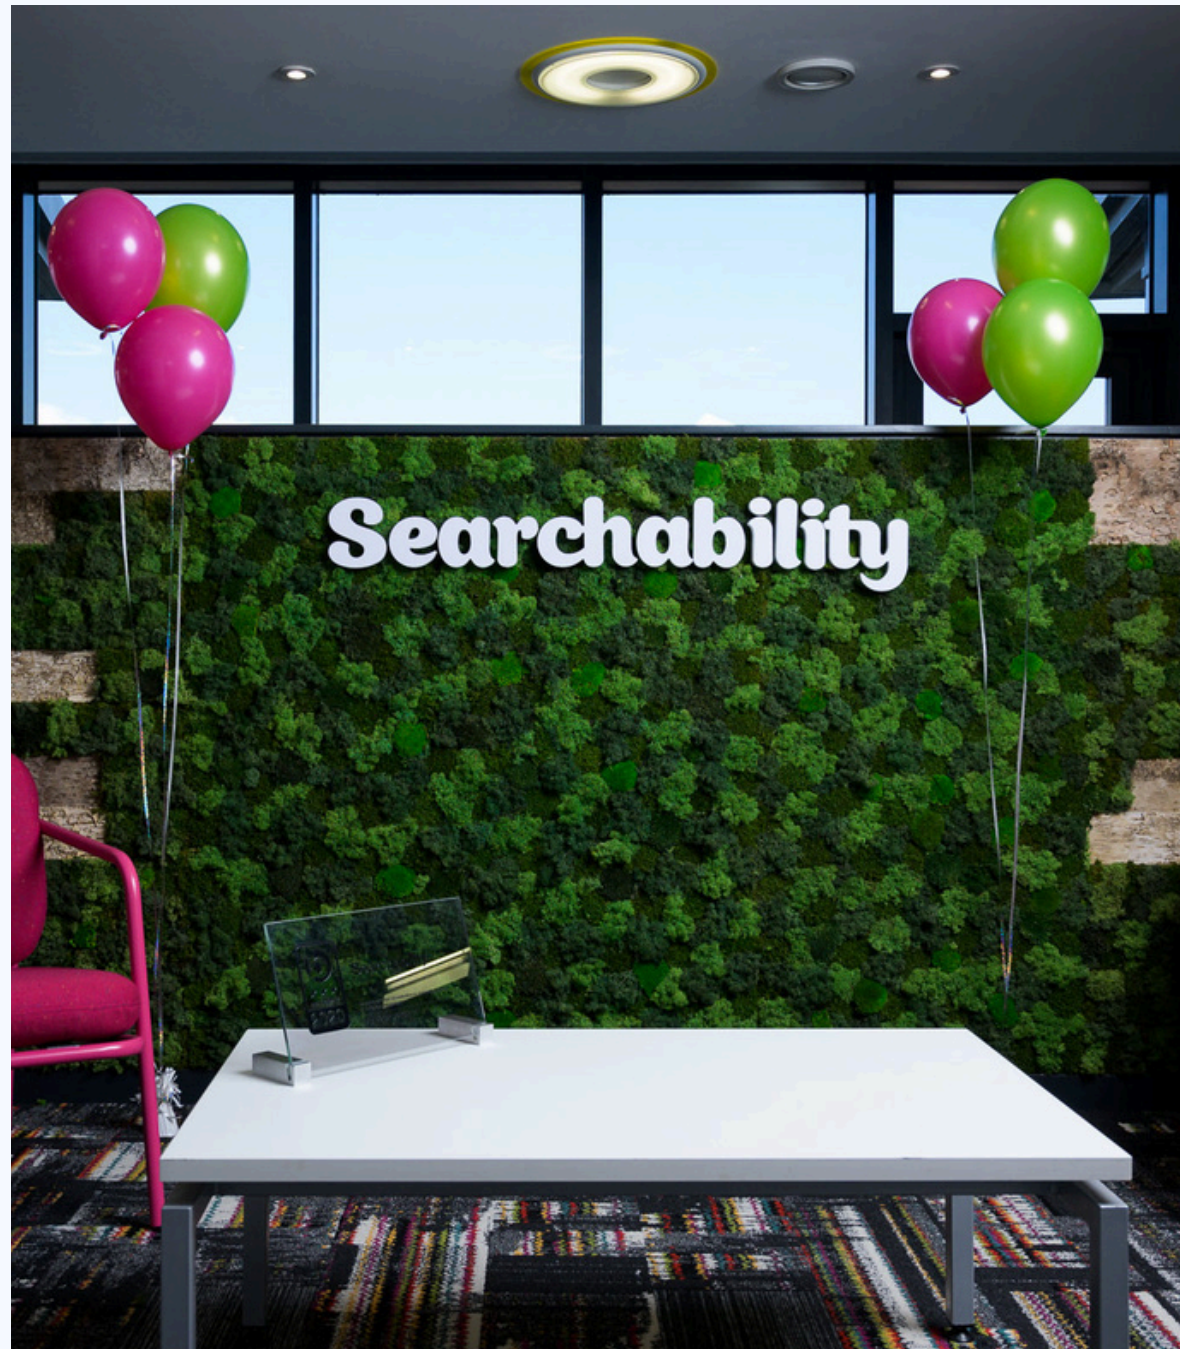

Track applications, move candidates through different stages and collaborate with team members through the candidate dashboard.

You can also add custom tags, filters and notes to future proof your hiring strategy.

AGENCY INTEGRATION

Add your preferred recruitment agencies to the system and promote selected vacancies. Track submission source, dates, ownership and rebate periods and prevent duplicate candidate submissions from multiple agency partners.

EMPLOYER BRANDING

88% of job seekers consider a company's employer brand when applying for a job

A strong employer brand will help you attract, engage, and retain top talent, which is why we offer a range of strategic services alongside the JobHoller platform to help you discover, shape, and promote yours.

Our certified employer brand leaders are experts in strategic employer branding. We've been awarded Top Employer status multiple times, delivered keynote talks at World Employer Branding Day and even won Global Recruiters "Best Employer Brand" award.
